

JOB DESCRIPTION

Title: Manager Network Planning

Reports to: Head of Network Planning & Scheduling

Department: Network Planning & Scheduling

Purpose

To manage the Network Planning section of the department, primarily focusing on the production of feasibility studies into new routes, monitoring the financial performance of the existing network and taking remedial action in conjunction with the Scheduling section.

Responsibilities

- To oversee the constant review of route performance against targets and report on deviations requiring management intervention
- Manage the production of route evaluations conducting research to identify new routes and opportunities for flydubai
- Build relationships with other airports through the Network Planning forums, such as the World Routes events.
- To assist with the development of the long term plan and planning modelling for the future scope and shape of the airline.
- Monitor competitor airlines, in terms of schedules, product, fleet mix etc. and report back to Senior Management
- Collaborate closely with the Scheduling team to provide economic analysis and evaluate the impacts of planned schedule changes
- Monitor weekly and monthly financial results, identifying anomalies, emergence of trends, opportunities and threats that require further analysis
- Conduct aircraft assessment and evaluations of potential changes to the fleet mix and aircraft configuration.
- Manage ad hoc project work and presentations, providing relevant analysis and expertise as required
- Manage the preparation of the Budget Operating Plan documents for distribution to senior management

Experience

- Minimum of 5 years' airline experience in a network planning or scheduling role of which 2 years' must be in a managerial capacity
- Must be an expert in airline economic methods and analysis

Qualifications

- Minimum degree level qualification in Economics, Business, Statistics, or a Mathematical or Science discipline
- Excellent numeracy skills and highly literate
- A post graduate qualification in Aviation is preferred

Competencies

- Strategic thinking
- Attention to detail and quality
- Problem Solving & Decision Making
- Teamwork
- Effective Communication