Your 360° Route Development Event Programme for 2015

About Routes

Helping the route development community do business

The Routes business allows the world's route development community to meet regularly, whether at our live events throughout the year, or on Routesonline every day. Airlines, airports and aviation stakeholders including tourism authorities, economic development agencies and commercial suppliers are part of this community.

The core focus varies from route expansion to route development to future planning. This document will provide you with all the tools you need to plan your route development calendar and activities for 2015.

The Routes business, which is part of UBM, is focused entirely on aviation route development and the company portfolio includes events, media and online businesses. Routes also has other key industry media including an online weekly newsletter, The HUB and the world air service development magazine, Routes News.
